BETTING FORECAST 4/1 Stormy Liberal, 9/2 Disco Partner, 11/2 World Of Trouble, 10/1 Conquest Tsunami, Havana Grey, 12/1 Buccherio, Lost Treasure, 16/1 Chanteline, Richard's Boy, Ruby Notion, 20/1 Will Call, 25/1 Rainbow Heir, Vision Perfect, 33/1 Hembree.

VERDICT

Last year's 1-2-3-4 are back but WORLD OF TROUBLE, who is 2-2 since switched to turf on good and slow going, looks the one to be with.

COMMENTS

Bucchero 4th in this at Del Mar 2017; most recently won 5.5f Keeneland G2 for second straight year

Chanteline 4-7 on turf (spent most of career on dirt); may need drying conditions

Conquest Tsunami Improved over a bit further for new trainer this year, G3 win & placed in similar company

Disco Partner Has terrific late kick, 3rd in this last year & two G2/3 wins, but slow ground blunts him

Havana Grey Won 5f Group 1 Flying Five at Curragh in Sep, but struggled in Prix de l'Abbaye latest

Hembree Better than ever winning G2 Nearctic (6f, good) at Woodbine latest but that was weak race

Lost Treasure Quirky, strong traveller but finds little; still, this test could suit him

Rainbow Heir Veteran but goes for a trainer with an extremely high strike-rate; smart on his day

Richard's Boy No win since May 2017 but head 2nd to same connections' Stormy Liberal in this last year

Ruby Notion Just four goes for this trainer, improved to win last two, most recently a Grade 3; claims

Stormy Liberal Up late to win this last year over 5f at Del Mar; won last three starts, G3 latest

Vision Perfect Won 5f Parx G3 in July and neck 2nd in another in September; versatile ground & trip-wise

Will Call 2-2 on turf here including a G3 in May; second to Bucchero in 5.5f Keeneland G2 latest

World Of Trouble 2-2 in minor stakes races since switched to turf; looks poised to go well
