VERDICT ⌃

Last year's winner ROBERT BRUCE & stablemate Bricks And Mortar look the runners to concentrate on, with the first named to repeat.

COMMENTS ⌃

Bandua Won local Grade 3 trial latest but exposed as short of this level

Bricks And Mortar 5-5 since returning from a long absence in December including three G1s; the one to beat

Captivating Moon Held by two of these, most recently third in the trial for this

Catcho En Die Fourth behind Robert Bruce in this 2018; off ten months after and struggled since return

Hunting Horn 0-10 at top level but has run creditably in top company in Britain last three starts

Intellogent Trained in France where he won 1m G1 Prix Jean Prat last year; probably needs best yet

Magic Wand 0-11 at top level; form figures in US Grade 1s read 423 but likely to come up short again

Pivoine Better than ever winning John Smith's Cup handicap at York latest but even more required

Robert Bruce Won this last year; not clear run when second to Bricks And Mortar latest

The Great Day Runner-up to Bandua in local Grade 3 trial for this latest; more needed
