BETTING FORECAST 6/4 Star Catcher, 5/1 Anapurna, 11/2 Tarnawa, 13/2 Fleeting, 9/1 Antonia De Vega, 11/1 Delphinia, 25/1 Klassique, Pink Dogwood, Sparkle Roll, Sun Maiden, 40/1 Nausha, 50/1 South Sea Pearl.

VERDICT

Star Catcher probably sets the standard. But not by much. FLEETING has twice been a worthy rival for her and ran well last time.

COMMENTS

Anapurna Won the Oaks in June and 1m6f Group 1 at Longchamp two weeks ago; goes well on soft

Antonia De Vega Impressive sole run (1m2f, soft) as 3yo when it looked as if 1m4f would suit her very well

Delphinia Fifth in the Oaks; better over about 1m6f on last two starts, close to Anapurna latest

Fleeting Came from well back when placed in the Oaks, Ribblesdale, Irish Oaks and Opera; big player

Klassique Looks reliable but exposed at 1m4f and with a bit to find at today's level

Nausha Won substandard Musidora at York in May; two runs since show she has mountain to climb

Pink Dogwood Beaten a neck by Anapurna in the Oaks at Epsom but career has gone in the wrong direction

South Sea Pearl Longchamp 7th on soft was creditable last time but Anapurna won it; has a lot to find

Sparkle Roll Just under 3l behind Star Catcher in the Ribblesdale; Listed 3rd also demands much more

Star Catcher Won Ribblesdale, Irish Oaks and Vermeille on last three starts, dictating pace in last two

Sun Maiden Good fourth returned to 1m4f on Kempton AW; better is needed; unraced on softer than good

Tarnawa Won last two outings; return to 1m4f could suit and she's one to consider
