VERDICT

The unexposed KING OF CHANGE makes plenty of appeal at the prices, as does his sibling Century Dream for each-way purposes.

COMMENTS

- Accidental Agent Won last year's Queen Anne; recent form isn't amazing; had wind surgery since last run
- Benbatl Impressive success in Group 2 at Newmarket on reappearance; leading player on ratings
- Century Dream Close third in this race last year; suited by soft/heavy ground; each-way contender
- Happy Power Form dipped behind Benbatl and King Of Comedy at Newmarket last time
- Imaging Close second to The Revenant at Baden-Baden in May; runner-up in Group 3 latest
- King Of Change Second to Magna Grecia in the Guineas; Listed winner on return from layoff; more to come
- King Of Comedy No match for Benbatl last time but progressive otherwise; headgear fitted; not ruled out
- Lord Glitters Good record at Ascot; won this year's Queen Anne; sixth in this contest in 2018
- Magna Grecia Won the 2,000 Guineas; pulled a hamstring in the Irish equivalent and absent since
- Mohaather Won the Greenham when last seen; potentially vulnerable over this testing 1m on return
- Move Swiftly Had similar scenario when scoring at Royal Ascot but this is a tougher assignment
- Phoenix Of Spain Made all in the Irish 2,000 Guineas; hasn't repeated that form in three runs since
- Raising Sand Has loads of form at Ascot but faces a very stiff task in this company
- Safe Voyage Very good 7f performer; worth another crack at 1m but needs a career best here
- The Revenant Highly talented gelding; career record is 8-10 and he has serious Group 1 aspirations
- Veracious Won the Falmouth then finished second in the Sun Chariot; smart filly
